Dear Parent & Carers

Following is information received from the Department of Education late last night -

Wyndham College will be non-operational for onsite learning on Monday 22 March 2021. Please keep updated through the School Updates App or by visiting the school website.

Learning resources are available from the department’s Learning from Home Hub to support educational continuity.

The NSW Department of Education is continuing to monitor local conditions and will keep our school communities updated on the operational status of our school.

There may also be disruption or cancellation of transport services. Check transportnsw.info or local council websites for further information.

We encourage you to follow the directions from emergency services and to avoid driving or playing in flood waters.

The safety and wellbeing of our students and staff remains our priority.

Keep updated with the latest information and advice on the department school safety page. Please download the school updates app which will provide you updated information on your school.

For information on weather conditions and warnings visit NSW SES or call the Public Information Inquiry Centre on 1800 227 228 for general enquiries.

Call NSW SES on 132 500 for emergency assistance in flood and storms.

For now, please stay safe and dry.

As it becomes available, further information regarding tomorrow and beyond, will be emailed to you and posted on our website, Facebook and Instagram pages. Please monitor these sites throughout the day and for instant information regarding the operational status of the College please download the School Updates app.

Kind regards

Karen Smith
